Assault on a Child

On January 23, 2022 at approximately 2:45 PM, Manchester Police responded to Southern New Hampshire Medical Center in Nashua for a child that had suspicious injuries.

Police learned that a family member brought the child into the emergency room with significant bruising on multiple parts of the body. Through the investigation, police were able to determine that the injuries happened in Manchester.

Detectives made contact with 31 year old Jessica Laferriere of Manchester. She was arrested and charged with Felony Second Degree Assault for causing bodily injury to a child under the age of 13. Laferriere also faces a charge of Endangering the Welfare of a Child.

Laferriere was arraigned today in Hillsborough Superior Court-North and released on PR bail. This case remains under investigation.
